

Privacy Statement

Talladega College respects both the privacy of individuals who use its websites and the privacy and security of the information they provide to the college. The College makes every reasonable effort to ensure the confidentiality and security of that information within its system.

Talladega College routinely collects information from Internet visitors. This data is used statistically and in aggregate to help manage the site and improve service. Some information is automatically logged, such as the pages visited and the IP address from which the access occurred. Some information is stored in cookies; which visitors can control by their browser settings. As a general rule, Talladega College does not track individual visitor profiles but does reserve the right to use log data to investigate resource management or security concerns.

Web visitors using online forms or applications may choose to supply information voluntarily. However, it is Talladega College intention that such information is kept private and secure and be used only for the purposes for which it was supplied.
