Talladega College Coronavirus/COVID-19 Student Emergency Assistance Fund

Due to the impact of the Coronavirus/COVID-19 outbreak, Talladega College has established a process for students seeking financial assistance. Funding is available to students who meet the eligibility criteria outlined below.

Eligibility Criteria
To qualify for funding, students must meet the following criteria:
- A US citizen or an eligible non-citizen.
- Currently enrolled as a degree-seeking full-time or part-time undergraduate or graduate student at Talladega College
- Experiencing unexpected financial hardship resulting from the Coronavirus/COVID-19 outbreak.

Examples of Expenses Covered by Coronavirus/COVID-19 Emergency Fund
- Food, Housing, Course Materials, Technology, Health Care, and Child Care Expenses.
- Travel Expenses (as a result of COVID-19)
- Homelessness or sudden loss of housing (as a result of COVID-19)
- Overdue utility bills reaching a turn-off notice (as a result of COVID-19)

Additional Items to Note:
- Due to the fact that limited funding is available, requests made for expenses beyond the Spring 2020 semester may not be considered at this time.
- Students may only receive the funds once via this application.
- Funds awarded do not need to be repaid, however, they may be subject to federal taxes.
- Funds awarded can ONLY be disbursed in the form of a check made payable to the student.

Application Process/Directions
- Complete and submit the application online at my.talladega.edu.
- All decisions will be made within 10-14 business days of submitting the application.
- Questions about this application or the emergency funds available can be directed to the Office of Financial Aid at finaid@talladega.edu.

Please login to my.talladega.edu to access the Talladega College Coronavirus/COVID-19 Student Emergency Assistance Fund application.